

**Be sure to fill out this form and include it with your application!

2012 Chesapeake News Association Journalism Scholarship

WHO: Current Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors majoring in mass communications or journalism at colleges and universities in Maryland, Delaware and Washington, D.C., or interns who have a permanent residence in Maryland, Delaware or Washington, D.C. and are earning credits at CAPBA stations (within the past 12 months). For example: A Towson University Journalism major would be eligible, even though s/he's from Ithaca, New York. An Ithaca College Journalism major who is from Towson AND interned at WBAL-TV last summer would also be eligible.

WHAT: Opportunity to win a $2,500 scholarship; regional recognition among professional broadcast journalists

HOW TO ENTER:

- Submit a current grade transcript
- Submit a current employment resume
- Prepare an essay, 500 words max, addressing the following questions:
  - *What is the biggest ethical issue facing broadcast journalists today and how would you confront it?
  - *Broadcasting is a difficult field to enter? What is your plan for getting that first job in broadcast journalism?

DUE: Must be postmarked by May 1, 2012

MAIL ENTRIES TO:

Sue Kopen Katcef
Philip Merrill College of Journalism
1117 Journalism Building
University of Maryland
College Park, MD 20742

Questions? E-mail Sue at susiekk@aol.com.

Applicant Name: _____

Address: _____
_____

E-mail Address: _____

Phone: _____